Overview of Rules

- Closed Basin: Basin is closed all year to water withdrawals.
- Instream Flow: Future water withdrawals are subject to the instream flows. All water uses that impact surface waters will be interrupted when stream flows fall below levels set in the rule.
- Instream Flow with Seasonal Closure: Closed to further water withdrawals during the time of year specified in the rule.

This map illustrates some of the factors that will be considered when evaluating water right permit applications. All locations displayed on this map should be considered approximate. This map is created with the smallest available stream tributary unit. This is not to be used for a determination at the parcel level.
