

Where can I sell my products and how do I get them to market?

There are many resources in Pierce County that will help you get your products to market, whether you are selling at a Farmer's Markets, directly to consumers, or through a distributor. This fact sheet includes purchasers, distributors, and aggregators. To visit a webpage, click on the title or copy and paste the link into your browser.

Charlie's Produce

Charlie's Produce supplies restaurants, grocery stores, institutions, wholesalers and the marine industry with a full range of conventional, organic and specialty agricultural products.
<http://www.charliesproduce.com>

Duck Delivery of Washington, Inc.

Duck Delivery of Washington, Inc. supplies customers and restaurants with quality fresh fruits, vegetables, and custom-cut produce.
<http://www.duckdelivery.com/>

FoodHub

FoodHub gathers food producers, professional food buyers, and the associations and suppliers that serve them both, in one dynamic marketplace and interactive directory. FoodHub engages the entire food community, including retail grocers, schools, institutional buyers, caterers, restaurants, farmers, ranchers, fishermen, vintners, plus the associations, service providers and industry suppliers that serve them all.
<http://food-hub.org/>

Fresh Food Revolution

Fresh Food Revolution is a non-profit cooperative of farmers, ranchers, food producers and the consumers who love to buy local. Their goal is to increase the amount of food purchased and eaten locally by providing an avenue for farmers to connect with consumers, restaurants, and institutions through local online markets.
<http://www.localfoodmarketplace.com/freshfoodrevolution/>

Full Circle

Full Circle is an artisan grocer and organic produce delivery service in Washington, Oregon, California, Alaska and Idaho. All the items are hand-selected from local farms for quality and taste, and delivered straight to customers door every week.
<http://www.fullcircle.com>

Mountain Community Co-op

Located in Eatonville, the Mountain Community Co-op works to make locally produced foods and products available through their store, organic produce shares, and a seasonal outdoor market.

<http://www.mountaincommunitycoop.coop/index.html>

Northwest Agriculture Business Center - Puget Sound Food Network

Located in Mt Vernon, in the heart of Washington's Skagit Valley farm region, Northwest Agriculture Business Center provides northwest Washington farmers with the skills and the resources required to profitably and efficiently supply their products to consumers, retailers, wholesalers, foodservice operators and food manufacturers.

<http://www.agbizcenter.org/>

Organically Grown Company

Organically Grown is the largest wholesaler of organic produce in the Pacific Northwest and provides natural and fine food retailers, supermarket chains, restaurants, home delivery enterprises and processors with organic produce.

<http://www.organicgrown.com/>

Puget Sound Fresh

Puget Sound Fresh provides information about community supported agriculture here in our region. Puget Sound Fresh has also served to raise awareness of the numerous economic, environmental and health benefits of local agriculture and actively works with consumers, wholesalers, retailers, restaurants, and institutions to incorporate local food.

<http://www.pugetsoundfresh.org/>

Puget Sound Food Hub Cooperative

The Puget Sound Food Hub Cooperative (PSFH) is a farmer owned cooperative operating in the Puget Sound Region. The PSFH combines marketing, aggregation, processing and distribution for member farms and ranches. The goal of the PSFH is to grow market access and build economic sustainability for northwest Washington farmers while increasing access to locally grown food for all.

<http://www.pugetsoundfoodhub.com/farmers/>

Washington State Department of Agriculture – Farm to School

This site is a toolkit designed to provide farms, schools, families, and communities with resources to help them meet their farm-to-school goals. The site brings together best practices and farm-to-school tips from their in-state and national network partners.

<http://www.wafarmtoschool.org/>

Washington State Farmers Market Association

Washington State Farmers Market Association supports and promotes vibrant and sustainable farmers markets in Washington State. They provide support and technical assistance to farmers markets in Washington State; educate the public on benefits of buying fresh and local farm products, and work to increase knowledge and understanding of farmers markets' role in community development, sustainable local agriculture, and access to nutritious food.
<http://www.wafarmersmarkets.com/>

The list is for informational purposes only. It is not complete, and does not constitute an endorsement.

