PIERCE COUNTY DISTRICT COURT, STATE OF WASHINGTON

In Re
COURT OPERATIONS UNDER THE EXIGENT CIRCUMSTANCES CREATED
BY PUBLIC HEALTH EMERGENCY IN WASHINGTON STATE

GENERAL ORDER
NO. 2020-05

WHEREAS On February 29, 2020, Washington State Governor Jay Inslee declared a state of emergency due to the public health emergency posed by the spread of the coronavirus (COVID – 19).

WHEREAS on March 16, 2020 this Court issued emergency General Orders 2020-02 and 2020-03 based on the March 4, 2020 Order No. 25700-B-602 from Chief Justice Debra Stephens of the Washington State Supreme Court authorizing Presiding Judges to adopt, modify and suspend court rules and orders and to take further actions concerning court operations, as warranted to address the current public health emergency; and

WHEREAS on March 19, 2020 Chief Justice Debra Stephens of the Washington State Supreme Court adopted Corrected Order No. 25700-B-607, setting forth direction and authority to Presiding Judges of trial courts across the State to effectively

1 administer their courts in response to this state of emergency, including the authority to 2 adopt, modify, and suspend court rules and orders as warranted to address the 3 emergency conditions; and

4
5 WHEREAS on March 25, 2020 the Governor issued Proclamation 20-25 which 6 described the current state of the pandemic and the threat of community transmission
7 and directed that “all people in Washington State are immediately prohibited from 8 leaving their home or place of residence except to conduct or participate in (1) essential
9 activities, and/or (2) employment in providing essential business services”. The 10 proclamation mandates that essential businesses such as the Court are prohibited from 11 operating unless they establish and implement social distancing and sanitation
12 measures established by the United States Dept. of Labor’s guidance on Preparing 13 Workplaces for COVID-19 and the Washington State Dept. of Health Workplace and 14 Employer Resources & Recommendation; and 15

17 WHEREAS in response to the Governor’s order, the majority of court staff are 18 working remotely from home, with only minimal staff on site; and

19
20 WHEREAS Chief Justice Stephens’ General Order No. 25700-B-607 requires 21 that all matters conducted by the Court during this time period “must be heard by 22 telephone, video, or other means that do not require in-person attendance, unless 23 impossible. Where court matters must be heard in person, social distancing and other 24 public health measures must be strictly observed.” That Order further recognizes that 25 “[n]othing in this order limits the authority of courts to adopt measures to protect health 26 and safety that are more restrictive than this order, as circumstances warrant”;
